Which will be sold by Auction (or who bids most) for the Entertainment and Diversion of the Gentry and Citizens of Norwich, and Inhabitants of the Places Adjacent, at Mr.
G. Rose's House, on Monday, Decemb. 2d. 1700.

By Edward Millington of London, Bookseller.

To the Gentry, and Citizens of Norwich.

Gentlemen,

AFTER Two Essays of Selling Books by Auction, I resolved in this City to make a Third, not doubting of your Favour in Promoting of this, as you did the former, which were daily attended, and universally approved of, by the Intelligent Citizens of Norwich; and being fully satisfied that a Sale of this nature is usually accompanied with sensible Advantages to the respective Buyers, viz. Penny-worths in the Books, and further degrees of Light and Knowledge in the Perusal of them. I have the Vanity of believing, and rationally concluding, my Catalogue, containing great Variety of all sorts of good Books, may be acceptable to all my worthy Friends, for whose Entertainment it is now made, and was originally designed, and that by their fair and ingenious Bidding at the Sale an honest Gain may be obtain'd by

Your Humble Servant and Fellow-Citizen

G. ROSE.

This Sale will begin at Mr. G. Rose's House in Norwich, on Monday the 2^d of December, 1700. from 4 to 8 every Evening, continuing daily till all the Books are Sold.

Conditions of SALE.

- I. That he who bids most is the Buyer; and if any Difference arises, the Book or Books to be forthwith expos'd to Sale again, and the Sale decided by the Sales-Man.
- II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwise expressed, (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any appear otherwise, before they be taken away, the Buyer shall have his Choice of taking or leaving them.
- III. That no Person advance less than 6d. each Bidding after any Book comes to 10s.
- IV. That every Person bid at first Six-pence for Quarts, Four-pence for 80. 120. 240. The Advance left at the Pleasure of the Company.
- V. That all Gentlemen will be pleas'd to give in their Names, and Places of Abode, after their Buying any Book or Books, paying also Five shillings in the Pound in part of the Book or Books they shall buy, (if demanded) and so proportionably for all lesser Sums.
- VI. That the Money for the Book or Books bought, is to be paid within three Days after the Auction is ended, at the Place of Sale, where the Books shall be ready to be delivered to them or their Order.
- VII. The Books may be Viewed two days before the Sale, and Commissions will be received and faithfully executed if directed to Ed. Millerton at the Place of Sale.
